“ Nathan was the kind of guy who seemed like he could be friends with anyone. He was kind, funny and light up every conversation and room he was in. Nathan was a great friend: he support people’s ideas, dreams and achievements. He always brought a smile to my face and knew how to get me to laugh. From Nathan getting me to try my first wing to playing dnd, we had a lot of fun together. He was there for me when I needed it and I’m the better for having known him. I’m going to miss his singing snaps and geeking out with him. Til we meet again.

“ From late night dances at On The Roxx to evenings together playing “Cheers to the Governor,” I have a thousand and one memories with you that I cherish immensely. Wings and White Russians. Steven Universe and Supernatural. Blue Jays and Daisies.

You’ve won the hearts of so many people over your life, and you made it so clear to us that we won’t yours as well.

Thanks for being the friend that everybody loved, and the sunshine that never faded.

God Bless You “Nathaniel Baileyson Coffeycake”

Until Next Time

“Nathan was my best friend. Nathan was my brother. I can honestly say I never knew a more kind, caring, dedicated, loving individual in my life than him. I always believed that Nathan was one of my guardian angels in the flesh, sent down from Heaven to carry me when I couldn't go on. The times that he, Jack, and I spent together will forever remain the happiest moments of my life. And to have just known Nathan, that will forever remain the proudest moment of my life.

I've said before that I don't believe in goodbyes; I have a hard time finding the "good" in them. So I prefer to say: until another day somewhere down the line, I'll be waiting there for you.

My condolences go out to his family and friends for the rough rough days ahead.

Nathan, I will miss you forever. I will love you for even longer.

Thank you Lord for such a great man.

“ Nathan was something special. It was always a joy to see him. I met him when he was in high school while serving lunch and while he was doing theater. He was always so respectful and kind. He was liked by everyone and liked everyone. I got to know him outside the theatre as well while he spent time with my children, Danielle, Erica and Greg and I know they will greatly miss him as well as my husband and I. Love and prayers to you always Nathan and to your family.

“ Nathan was one of my best friends and a very talented actor. He was apart of my senior project back in high school, where he played the lead (Scat) in the show I wrote and produced. He always wore a smile on his face whenever we were together. Whether it was acting in a play together, sitting on the couch and drinking, playing video games or just walking around downtown. Nathan will always hold a special place in my heart. Sending love and prayers your way.

“ I had the honor to have Nathan in my senior project class at gtchs. Though Nathan and I only new each other as classmates; I knew Nathan as an inspiration. Throughout highscool Nathan lived to inspire, to love and to live. He has always been brave enough to speak his mind and courageous enough to understand himself. Nathan has always been, and always will be; an inspiration on understanding. I pray one day that we too, can all understand... May his heart continue to love, through all the love he has given us.

“ Nathan was always a delight to be around. Anytime a friend was down or having a bad day, Nathan would always make a joke or do something silly to put a smile on their face. Nathan will forever have a special place in my heart for the kindness that he showed to me and those around him. ”

I love you buddy.
