Born in Oconee County, she was the daughter of the late Sloan David and Jessie Pauline Butler Addis. Mrs. Marchbanks was a homemaker. Her life was an example of trust in God's Word. She accompanied her husband for over 50 years in his Bible teaching ministry throughout the Southeast.

“ Ann, Mike, Jacob, Ethan and Maegan,

I know you will dearly miss your mother and grandmother. I'm disappointed I didn't get to know her because she sounds like she was a delightful and godly lady who would have been wonderful to know. Now she is gone from you for a while, and I pray for a special measure of God's grace to be with each of you today and in the days to come. Love, Sarah for all the Kaminskis

“ To Ann and Mike,
Our condolences are with you on the loss of your mother. What a precious blessing to have had a mother who loved the Lord the way that she did. And what a blessed legacy to have a family that follows her in serving him. The words of John W. Peterson come to my mind as he wrote:

IT'S NOT AN EASY ROAD

- 1. It's not an easy road we are trav'ling to Heaven,
For many are the thorns on the way;
It's not an easy road but the Savior is with us,
His presence gives us joy ev'ry day.*
- 2. It's not an easy road, there are trials and troubles,
And many are the dangers we meet;
But Jesus guards and keeps so that nothing can harm us,
And smooth the rugged path for our feet.*
- 3. Tho' I am often footsore and weary from travel,
Tho' I am often bowed down with care;
A better day is coming when Home in the glory,
We'll rest in perfect peace over there.*

CHORUS:

*No, no, it's not an easy road,
No, no, it's not an easy road.
But Jesus walks with me and brightens my journey,
And lightens ev'ry heavy load.*

I am sorry that I cannot be there today to honor her memory with you, but please be reminded that our prayers are with you all on this both sad and happy day. How good to know that your mother is indeed now resting in perfect peace.
