“ I know this is a difficult time. You will always have that void in your life, but you cherish the times that have become a part of the memory of what is so special. You have always been so good to work with and for. You have been an individual that I admired and enjoyed being around. Take care of yourself and your family during this time of change in life. I couldn't leave you with just the words given earlier, you deserve so much more. Thank you for who you are.##imported-begin##Kenneth Norwood##imported-end##

“ Nancy,

There never seem to be the right words that can adequately convey feelings during times like this. I know some of the trials your family have endured over the past several months. I have watched you stand up to those trials with both compassion and dignity. Please know that you and your family are in my prayers.
