“ The thing I remember the most about Nanny Blackwell is, she NEVER complained about anything. It didn't matter what it was, she could be sick and wouldn't say a word, not like something that we were having for supper and just push it to the side of her plate. She was content with whatever and was always smiling. I never once heard a complaint from this sweet woman. After fifteen years of knowing her and being a part of the family, she will forever hold a special place in my heart. Nanny, enjoy your Christmas in heaven and watch over us all down here, until next time.....we love you.
