“ I was so sorry to hear of Normans passing. He was always so excited to see all the family at get togethers we had and I will miss his presence there from now on. He was clearly a devoted husband and father and will be greatly missed, Marie and April I am so sorry for your loss. You will feel Normans absence more than anyone. Just keep in mind that love does not die. And as long as you remember Norman he will never be completely gone from this world. And someday you will all meet again.
