“ When I was a little girl my Grandmother was everthing to me. I remember going to Church and sitting with her and feeling so proud she was my Grandmother. She and I would go off together to the Clock Drive-In and we loved to go look at new Mobile Homes. The funniest thing I remember is that when I was just maybe 3 or 4 I would try to hide under her dress when she would be washing dishes. I don't know what possessed me to try this but she told me if I didn't quit one day she might accidentally pee on me. Well, I never listened so the last time I tried this she took a little water from the sink and dripped it on me and I really thought she had done what she threatened. Obviously, I never tried it again. I guess she showed me who was boss. I loved my Grandmother very much and I will always celebrate her life. May she rest in peace and always be in our hearts.

“ I've already signed the guestbook but I just thought of something else I wanted to share. I can remember as a kid when my Grandmother would come over to visit my Mother(Bobbie Finch)and I would be tied to the clothes line because I would run away all of the time. My Grandmother used to get so mad at my mother. I also want to share one other memory that was such a special time to me. It was the biggest treat for me when I would get to go to the Burger King and eat with my Mother & Grandmother. One more thing, I will miss her everyday but I know that one day I will be reunited with her in Heaven. What a beautiful day that will be

Love Your Granddaughter

“ She was a precious lady and will be missed very much. One memory that I will always be thankful of is that she made all of my bridesmaid dresses and only charged $25.00. I got married in 1981. I will always love her and miss her since I didn't see her as often as I wanted to. I live in Atlanta, Georgia.

Love Always

“ I love you grandmother! I have so so many special memories of you growing up and I cherish them all. The most precious one to me is how I always heard momma calling you "mother" so I always thought you were my mother and I called you that always and you didn't mind. You were such a special lady and will be greatly missed. God Bless You. Your Granddaughter Rebecca##imported-begin##Rebecca L. Finch Houze##imported-end##
