“ The first time I met papa Louis was when I took Aubrey to the house. For the first time. We were welcomed with open arms as he had known us all our lives,,aND remained that way. Aubrey loved seeing him and she would often ask me about something he said ortell me something they did when she came back from his house. We will surely miss him and miss saying hey papa Louis and the hugs .I will miss that soft spoken voice seeing him at the table. He was so precious and had a loving spirit. We will see you again .That's for sure.
