

Patricia "Pat" Ann Hampton

October 28, 1947 - October 23, 2024

Patricia "Pat" Ann (McMahan) Hampton, 76, went to be with the Lord on Wednesday evening, October 23, 2024, at her home. She was the last surviving member of her family.

Born in Asheville, NC, Patricia was the daughter of the late James Clyde McMahan, Sr., and Mildred Lucille (Kilby) McMahan. She retired after 20 years of service with Clemson University where she worked in the Clemson Apparel Research Department as a CAD Operator and was of the Baptist faith. Pat, as she was affectionately known, loved her family dearly and cherished her many friends. She was known for her Huge heart and telling things just like they were. She enjoyed camping and spending time at Lake Jocassee and Lake Keowee with her family and friends.

Pat is survived by her daughter: Angela M. Burns and husband Todd of Travelers Rest; granddaughter: Macayla Bettis; step-grandson: Stephen Burns and many nieces and nephews.

Along with her parents, Pat was predeceased by a grandson: Zachary Bettis; 3 brothers: J.C. McMahan, Jerry McMahan, and Doug McMahan and 3 sisters: Mary Ellen Childress, Nancy Cobb, and Sandra Lambert.

A celebration of Pat's life will be held on Sunday, November 10, 2024, at 2:00 p.m. at Christ United Methodist Church – Social Hall, 901 Easley Bridge Rd.,

Greenville, SC 29611.

Cemetery Details

Private Burial

Previous Events

Celebration of Life

NOV 10. 2:00 PM - 3:00 PM (ET)

Christ United Methodist Church
901 Easley Bridge Rd.
Greenville, SC 29611

Tribute Wall

RG

“ Randy and Tammy Gilbert purchased the Lavender Reflections Spray for the family of Patricia "Pat" Ann Hampton.

Randy and Tammy Gilbert - November 08, 2024 at 04:41 AM

RG

“ Randy and Tammy Gilbert planted a Memorial Tree in honor of Patricia "Pat" Ann Hampton.

Randy and Tammy Gilbert - November 08, 2024 at 04:41 AM

SE

“ Sarah Elders lit a candle in memory of Patricia Hampton

Sarah Elders - October 28, 2024 at 06:34 PM

TB

“ Mom, I miss you. I love you and I have the upmost respect and love for your beautiful daughter and her family. I remember when I asked you for her hand in marriage and you turned around and said " yes you sure can". I think you knew I was scared to death because let's face it Ms Pat, you could be a little scary lol.. but your heart was kind and big. That's what makes you, you. That's what I love about you. You are who you are with absolutely no apologies.

I'm going to miss you. I'm going to miss you and Sandra coming over for steaks and you always told me how good my food was. Thank you for that. As I write this letter to you my wife cries for you. She misses you so much. I just want you to know I will always do whatever it takes to make your daughter happy. Please don't ever worry about that.

Also, you like Donald Trump. You know I couldn't stand the man and you never give me a hard time about it. You always told me as long as I vote I can complain about whoever and whatever I wanted.

I love you mom

Todd Burns - October 27, 2024 at 07:13 PM

AB

“ To my mom... I can never express how amazing you were as a mother. You taught me empathy, strength, independence, sympathy, understanding, patience, kindness and so much more. You showed me more love than anyone ever could. You were my rock and my constant. Memories of you overflow in my mind and my heart will forever be changed. You went through so much in life, but yet you pushed through, like the fighter you were. You taught me that as well. Thank you. Your guidance and love have helped me become the person, mom, wife, worker, friend & woman that I am today. You told me, after Zachary left us, that you were in awe of me, and my will to continue & stay strong. I was able to do that because of you. I know, that being the youngest of 7, you watched 2 siblings go, then your mom, then another sibling, then your grandson, then your last 3 siblings... one being your best friend. I know your heart was broken and tired. I'm so happy that you got your wish, a wish for a peaceful end. I will forever love you & miss you. I will forever long for more conversations, more hugs, more laughter... more time... just more. I have too many memories to pick just one, I have a lifetime of them, and I cherish each & every one.

Angela McMahan Burns - October 27, 2024 at 07:04 PM

DW

“ Pat and I were first cousins and dear friends. She and I could never have sat beside each other at a serious event. Many years ago, Pat came to NC when my brother, Bill, passed. We were sitting at the kitchen table talking and I couldn't stop crying. She felt something brush her leg. I softly said, “That's just Bills's dog, Rusty. He's scruffy but sweet.” Without a beat, she said, “Yeah, I've got one at home just like him.” I busted out laughing. I was talking about a dog. She was talking about a man. For 5 whole minutes, my heart wasn't broken. She just had that shine about her - what you see is what you get. I miss you already, Cuz! I will be seeing you soon! I love you❤️

Deborah Watson - October 27, 2024 at 11:47 AM

RM

“ Pat was not just my aunt, she was my friend. Someone who I knew would always tell me truth, just very matter of fact like. She was ALWAYS there for me every. single. time. She loved her family so much! I would take my girls and hit the road and stay with Pat for days. She was my refuge, surviving such hard times. Times I thought I couldn't survive. But Pat, she always had a way of helping me see straight. Knowing she was there gave me strength to go back home to Hickory and keep moving foward.... My girls loved Pat too. And was just that welcoming. She made them feel safe in times of turmoil. She grounded us all. My heart hurts just thinking about never being able to call her up and just yak. Until heaven, Pat. I can't wait to see you again. Tell mom and pop hi for me and sissy too. Talk to you soon. I love you dearly my auntie, my friend. Renita McMahan.

Renita McMahan - October 27, 2024 at 12:36 AM