

Patricia Phillips

December 23, 1948 - December 28, 2014

Patricia Hazel Phillips, 66, passed away on Sunday, December 28, 2014 at McCall Hospice House.

Born on December 23, 1948 in Greenville County, she was the daughter of the late Charles E. and Iris McCuen Hazel. Pat graduated from Wade Hampton High School and attended the Baptist Bible College in Springfield, MO. She was currently employed at Greer First Baptist After School Program and was an active member at Taylors First Baptist Church, where she enjoyed working with the Mission Doll Ministry.

Pat was a loving mother and grandmother. She leaves behind her two sons, Travis Phillips (Dayna) and Jason Phillips (Amanda). She centered all her conversations on her grandchildren, Hailey, Cobe, Branson, and Avanna Phillips. Pat was also loved by her sisters, Peggy Hazel Murray (David) and Elizabeth Hazel Jordan (Joe), and many nieces and nephews.

The family will receive friends on Friday, January 2, 2015 from 10 a.m. until 11 a.m. at Taylors First Baptist Church Chapel; Bldg C. Memorial services will follow at 11 a.m.

In lieu of flowers, gifts may be made in memory of Patricia to Taylors First Baptist Church Missions Program, Taylors, SC, or to McCall Hospice House, Simpsonville, SC.

“ Peggy, David, Libby and Joe, I just wanted to tell you how sorry I was to read in today's paper about Pat's death. I wish I had known her better. She must have been as sweet as her 2 sisters! I wish I could be with you tomorrow but will not be able to make it. And Jeanie is sick and won't be able to be there. Please know we are thinking of you all and are so sorry for your loss. Love and hugs, Mindy Metcalf Cornelison
