“ My heart sank when I heard about Pat. She always greeted me with a genuine smile and I will miss that. I am still enjoying the little clock she and Furman gave us for Christmas. My prayers will include all that are saddened by her passing. A marvelous quote has inspired me when facing loss, "She has closed her eyes on Earth, and opened them in Heaven." I will rejoice for the joy felt in Heaven upon her arrival.##imported-begin##Barbara Masaki##imported-end##

“ Furman, Darlene and Family, Our thoughts and prayers go out to you during this loss. Pat was the sweetest person I believe I have ever known. I have many precious memories of her when she worked at Mt. View and worked directly with my mother (Martha Pittman). She was someone you wanted to be friends with. Its been a few years since we had seen her, but it was a delight spending time with her. She was ALWAYS a joy to be around. May God bless you and give you comfort like only he can. We know she is in heaven walking those streets of Gold and know that we will some day see her again. God bless you....Lori Pittman Turner and Martha Pittman##imported-begin##Lori Pittman Turner##imported-end##
