“ Ron and I have had the privilage of being a neighbor of Dona's and David's for 22 years. They have been the best neighbors anyone could hope for. David always had a yard project he was working on. You could tell that he truly enjoyed his home and family. When you have pets you're not sure how your neighbors will react toward them. David loved our Nikki (pekeneise) for 13 yrs. then when we had a senior moment and came home with two rescue dogs, he took up with them. They loved seeing David out so they could get that extra love. Dona, you and the family are in our prayers. We love you and will miss our friend.

My heart bleeds for you, Dona & family. I remember David from "the village" but haven't seen him in years. May God comfort you in these days of darkness and grief. Sending you love and sincere sympathy.
