“ Hi to Roger, Danny and extended family. I am so sorry to hear of Uncle Paul's passing. I am also sorry that time and distance has kept me away from Greenville for so long and that I have lost touch with many relatives. I have many very fond childhood memories of going to Mama and Papa Jewell's house on Sunday's and playing all over the farm, including that scary attic; climbing in those big trees in the front yard, trying to get to know Maude (their work horse), and eating those fabulous cornbread sticks Mama Jewell made. That list could go on and on. I also reflect on how much my Dad and uncle Paul and Andy Griffith resembled one another. It seemed so strange at that age that someone else looked like my Dad. Anyway, my prayers are with you all. I'm sure that as much as there is to grieve, there is so much more to celebrate. I just came to the realization reading the obit. that uncle Paul was not only the last sibling to pass from the Jewell family, he also is my last uncle or aunt on either side to pass on. Time marches on. Wishing you all peace and comfort! Todd Jewell
