Tribute Wall

“ To open the newspaper today and learn that the world has lost a great person like Paul was heart breaking. I remember so many times that Paul graced my home in Orem, Utah while visiting with my daughters, Tani and Cyndi. He always tried to make everyone feel good in his presents and was such a happy young man. My daughter talked so well of Paul, who he teased with great pleasure, and they remained friends through life. His GTO he owned in high school was his pride. When he moved away from Utah we felt his loss from our home. I am very sorry that your family must now face the ultimate void because you have indeed lost an incredible person. May God bless your family.##imported-begin##ANN COX##imported-end##
