“Brother Jay, heaven got much sweeter on Wednesday as my Sister Pauline stepped through those pearly gates. So, so many memories of all of us together in that little white block building, worshipping our SAVIOR as HIS children. You and Sister Pauline teasing me and wondering if all those curls in my hair was really all my hair instead of a wig. Brother Ray stopped me at the door one Sunday morning and asked me if all that hair was mine. So many precious hugs and telling each other how much we loved one another. I remember Brother Ray talking about Sister Pauline and how sick she had been at one time but she told him: “As long as I can still raise my hands to praise JESUS, it will be alright.” Gary and I love you Brother Jay and if we can help in any way, please call. We’ll be praying for you and your family in the days, weeks and months ahead asking GOD to grant you all HIS peace that passes all understanding. I’m sure after 70 years of having her by your side, it will be heartbreaking to see she’s gone ahead of you but lift up your head, our redemption is drawing nigh. I’m absolutely sure she’ll be waiting by the river for you.

*With all our sympathy and love,
Gary and Bea Boggs*

“I could not cover the memories I have of her and Mr Whitacre at Bethany...they were like my family and I loved them so...we spoke on the phone just a few months ago, and we laughed for the longest time...I am praying for your family...

It was my joy to be her and Jay's pastor for a few years. She was always so joyful to fellowship with at church, in the community and in their home. She loved her Lord, His Word and to worship with her husband. May the Lord be precious to him as I know he misses her so much until they United again for eternity in Heaven. May the comfort of God and His peace bless Jay and all of their beloved family.

“ I am so sorry about Mrs. Whitaker . She was always smiling. I loved to sit on the front porch wit her and Mr. Whitaker and share their stories and their lives. I know that heaven is a much brighter place, now that she is home. She will greatly missed.
