“ *Perry and Mary,
Life just stood still and I had to catch my breath as I heard the news of your loss of Bubba. I can't even imagine what you guys are going through. He was such a gregarious and adventurous person. My heart aches for you both and for Sami and Ashton. Life will carry on and while we never understand why things happen, we will always have the memories and the joy effect that a person has on our souls. He will be missed. God bless you all and prayers for your comfort during this time abound.*

“ Dear Perry & Mary,

There are not enough words to express my condolences for the loss of your handsome and incredible son. He was a very big part of our lives. I will never forget the day we asked him to be the Godfather of our unborn son. He cried tears of joy and I knew right then that I just made a genuine friend forever. I was blessed to know him for only four years, but from the day I met him, it felt as if I had known him my whole life. The day Miles was born, he was there to celebrate with us. When Josh and I got married, I remember seeing Perry's handsome smile as I walked down the aisle to marry his best friend. I also remember him giving me a big bear hug, telling me he loved me and that I looked so beautiful that day, at our reception. Soon after that moment, the photographer took our picture. It will always be a treasured memory for me, when I look at that picture. There are so many unforgettable memories I shared with him.

I deeply apologize for not being able to attend the services. I hate the fact that Miles and I cannot come because it doesn't feel right. The next time I see the both of you, Sammie and Ashton, big hugs are definitely in order! I can't wait for Miles and Ashton to play together, like the brothers their fathers were growing up. Know that you, Sammie, Ashton and all of Perry's family and close friends are in my thoughts an prayers. I love you.
