“ Karen, Kayla, Mark, and Jonathan, we have such fond memories of Philip through the years. We considered him a friend. We are sorry for your loss, but have known him as a consistent Christian and know he has reached his reward. Know that we love and appreciate each one of you. So sorry we were unable to make it to the memorial service, however, you all were in our thoughts and prayers.

“ When I think of my Uncle Philip, I think of his story telling, his laugh and his smile, just like my Grandmother Payne. He not only brought laughter into a room, but joy into lives. He was loved and will definitely be missed. - Natalie Payne Cloninger
