

Ralph Lester Kuck

December 21, 1929 - June 14, 2025

Ralph Lester Kuck, 95, of Greenville, passed away peacefully at home on June 14, 2025.

Ralph was born in Fall River, Wisconsin on December 21, 1929, to the late Edward and Marie Yohn Kuck.

Ralph is survived by his loving wife of 69 years, Jean Heath Kuck; daughter: Cathy Mayer(Kelvin); son-in-law: Lawrence Wheelock; brother: Lawrence Kuck(Illis); sister: Hilda Kuck; grandchildren: Sammy Mayer(Anna), Sara Mayer, Steven Wheelock, Amy Adams(Andrew); great-grandchildren: Nathan, Damian, Emma Adams; and many loving nieces and nephews.

Along with his parents he was predeceased by a daughter, Carolyn Wheelock, five sisters and three brothers.

Ralph served in the US Army during the Korean Conflict, then worked for Duke Power for 37 years. He enjoyed many years of retirement with his loving wife. A man of few words but strong presence, Ralph will be remembered for the sweet influence of his kind, humble, loving faithful spirit. He was a rock and anchor to his family and friends.

The family will receive friends Saturday, June 21, 2025, from 10am until 11am at The Howze Mortuary.

Funeral services will be Saturday, June 21, 2025, at 11am at The Howze Mortuary Chapel with burial to follow at Mountain View Memorial Park.

Services will be conducted by Kelvin Naef, Carl Nelson and Connor Turpin.

The family will be at their respective homes.
