“ So sorry for your loss, never knew him but heard lots of positive comments about him. But he raced over there at Travelers Rest Speedway with my little cousin a Ken Bowers known as ( wild man) this is so sad for both families no parents should have to bury their child. , my heart is right there with you I had to bury my only son. Times can heal but never goes away. I knew Sudie from way back the grandmother. Prayers for y'all the days ahead of you. RIP Randy. Elizabeth Owens Cantrell ( Libby)

“Dude this still don't seem real. You would make my day at work with your corny one liners lol. I remember laughing at you bc you wouldn't ride the rides at the fair but you'd raise hell on a track. You told me bc you built your car so you know it was good but look at the carnies building these rides lol how can you trust that. It was hilarious! I hate you're not here for me to aggravate at work now. Work will never be the same. You definitely left your mark on us. Much love my friend. Rest easy!!

“ Randy was the first person to befriend me when I moved up to Travelers Rest 5 years ago. We worked together at T&S Brass, Randy was always there when I needed him. As I was for him, we would sit on his porch and talk about life and the plans we had. Races he was in (even though i knew and still know nothing about racing). I would always listen, cause thats what he loved. His laughter and humor would always brighten up anyone's day at work. He will be truly missed by all that knew and loved him. Rest easy my friend, and one day I will see you again.
