“ Ray was a dear Friend. We had a lot in common. He had a twin sister and so do I. He and Judy was there for me when my wife died. They help me take care of her and my daughter. He was faithful to his lord, his family and friends. He loved his church and taught the youth in Bible School with Tracy Roddy. 30 plus years he taught that class and would give each child that attended a gold dollar. He made our Church community a better place and will be missed. Deborah and Pam I am sorry for your loss and you are in my prayers

“ My fondest memories of Ray are when he was singing in the choir. I loved to hear his deep voice as he praised God, and he had such a beautiful sense of humor! He could take the worst choir practice and make us all laugh about it! I will miss his hugs on Sunday mornings. I have been blessed to call him my friend. ”
