“ Earl was my step - dad but to me he was like my dad for 25 yrs . Lots of good memories (especially fishing) with him . He was a major part of my life and regardless of anyone , nobody can take that time or the love we had . He loved me and I did him and that's what matters .. I'm gonna miss you and I love you always .

“ I have many memories of my Uncle Raymond! I would say the most memorable is when I was a teenager he and his son (blue boy) David would come to our house after Church on Sunday afternoon and we would go to the elementary school near by and play softball with family and our church family. I'm sure my Uncle is one happy man right now getting to see David, my mom and pa, and many other family members and friends who have went before us. Makes me a little jealous to be honest! 😞❤️
