“ I am so sorry to learn of the passing of Rex. I was on the staff at WHHS and knew this fine young, happy, outgoing and so much more young man. May our Lord comfort and strengthen your hearts as never before. He is with our Lord and you will truly be reunited one day. 🙏

“ My heart goes out to the Robertson family and to the many close friends of Rex. From the elementary school days of playing soccer together thru high school, Rex had this amazingly fun and infectious personality. I pray for him, his family, and close friends. Rex will be missed by many but never forgotten. Rex is in a better place spending eternity with our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. May God Bless him and you all.

My sincere apologies for not attending the funeral as I have come down with a cough/cold and feel it's more respectful during these uncertain times to stay away from others in order to not make others sick.

Sincerely,
Alan Fritz

“ My thoughts and prayers to Rex’s daughter, whom he was so proud of, and his family. I am beyond sad. I can still hear Rex saying “player” and all the other cute things he would say.

He introduced me to Friday and Next Friday movies. We watched so many comedies together.

I remember all the times we spent designing his house off of my parade of homes and it turned out beautiful.

One day, I’ll meet you in heaven and we will laugh just like old times. Love you Rex.

“ I remember Rex as a wonderful youth soccer player on his Dad, Alan, 's Eastside Y Botany Woods soccer team with our older son, Jeff. Alan was a wonderful coach and Rex was a good leader for their team. Further, Rex was a fine player for Wade Hampton High's boys soccer team later on, with excellent sportsmanship taught him by his Dad. Our family is sad to learn that Rex has left us for Heaven. I know you all will certainly miss him. Our most sincere Sympathies and prayers for your loss of Rex.
