No words can express my heartbreak for the loss of my precious cousin Renee. Not only was she beautiful on the outside, she was the kindest, most sensitive person on the face of the earth. She loved her husband and children so much and was always concerned with what was going on with my family, even when it was hard to form the words to let me know. But she always, even to the very end, let me know how special I was to her and how much she loved me. And then she always followed up with how wonderful George was and how he cared for her. It is so comforting to know that Renee is with her Lord and Savior. And I know Lisa welcomed her with open arms too. We will miss you and can't wait to be with you again.
