“ May your Spirit fly free now in Peace, Light & LoveRicky was a neighbor at Court Ridge who always offered to help whenever we ran into each other on his regular walks. . . How Can I Help seemed to be his natural instinct & it was appreciated by many! He shared how much he loved his work in Radio & losing a creative outlet for his energy may have been very difficult for him I imagine..... Praying now for your peaceful transition Ricky to enveloping Unconditional Love & Pure Light..... and for your Family & Friends who are missing you.

“ Ric you will be truly missed more then you ever know. You were the kindest soul I know. You would always reach out and help anyone. I know you were a friend of Robert Batson for over 30 years and I got to know you working for us as our DJ. There are so many stories I could share. Mostly I remember when my husband was very sick and you sat by his bedside in the hospital for days and then without reservation went with my parents to do a family wedding in ND while Rob (or Robbie as you called him) was still in the hospital. The stories he came back with from that trip were hilarious. I even remembering him telling us about his big trip out west that he took and in the middle of no where he married this adorable couple! He would do anything for anybody that is just the was Ric was. Ric you are forever in our hearts! Prayers to you and your amazing son Carson and Ric's Dad and his entire family. We have all been truly blessed to have been a part of your life.
Rest in Peace

“ Ricky. That laugh! Seemed like he was always up to something. That smile, and grin. He made me laugh, alot. We worked together at WFBC radio. He was my neighbor when I lived on Summit Dr. He and Billy Mac. If I needed some help with something, he was there. That, long, lanky, guy. He and Billy Mac, after a great snowfall, back in the day, rolled the biggest snowball I'd have ever seen. My daughter, Lauren, then, about 3 years old, and I , laughed as they struggled, and pushed and fell, and finally, got hat snowball, as big as it would get. About 2 feet in diameter, solid ice. We got a big kick out of that! Until, the next morning, I found it blocking my front door! Ha! They must have gotten a big laugh out of putting that thing on my front porch, I can see em both....giggling..laughing...trying to be quiet. That laugh, though, quiet now, wont be forgotten. RIP Ricky, your friend Heidi Aiken.
