“ Tim & Boys, I am so sad to hear of Robbie's passing. We shared such a special time in life when we were all young, getting married, working on our first homes and having babies. Robbie will forever have a special place in my heart. She was beautiful inside and out and a blessing to so many including me.

“ I am so sorry about the passing of a dear friend and co-worker. My thoughts and prayers go out to Tim and the boys and her mom and all of her family. You all have my sincerest sympathy. Robbie will surely be missed by me and all of her Enterprise family. It has always been a pleasure talking and working with her and I will miss all our conversations. She was a special lady and I know Robbie was a Christian and I know she is in her Heavenly home. R.I.P. my dear friend . Until we meet again you will be missed, I question why you but I know God doesn't make mistakes.

Tim, Kevin and Kyle,

Prudy and I are so very sorry to learn of Robbie's passing. She was such a special person with a sweet spirit. I was so privileged to sit by her in choir and share grace and peace with her each Sunday. Our entire family is praying for you to be comforted in this time of grief. Rest in peace Robbie, thou good and faithful servant.
