“ Charlie and Bob went into the Navy in Greenville and both served aboard the USS Los Angeles during the Korean Conflict, Charlie has always told funny stories about those days. I had the pleasure of meeting Bob and Jean when we were married 12 years ago, he was on crutches and had a great big smile on his face. I know Jean and all of his family will miss him, as will Charlie.

“ To the Carson family, the loss of your father ,grandfather, brother, uncle and cousin has truly left and indelible mark on this world. One filled with his love of the Lord and love of his family. He was funny, honest, and straight forward when need be. He loved his community and He raised his children with those same qualifies. Not a lot of us have a second chance in finding a second soul mate after losing your first, but, God had another plan for him and hense, he met Jean. He loved her dearly and she was instantly absorbed into the Carson clan as if she was always there and and she will always carry Bobbys love with her. As his cousin, I will miss his funny jokes, the way he would disguise his voice on phone to ask a fake survey, or our lengthy political discussions. We loved you very much and miss you dearly. The LaBriola family.
