“ The last time I seen Robert, he looked really good. I loved being able to spend time with Aunt Francis, Doris and Robert. I had spoken with him over the phone a few times since I seen him. He always seemed to be cheerful. Today, I will be traveling to say my final goodbye. I really can't imagine not being able to see Robert and his sweet smile. I know he will be looking down upon us with love in his heart.

I know you didn't mean to leave us so soon. You are safe now and you have been made whole. Wholeness is where true happiness lies. You have now found that happiness for eternity. I will see you again someday. Please remember that we all loved you very much. Although, you may not be with us now, you will be forever in our minds and in our hearts. I love you Cousin Robert. My mom Charlotte loves you and your Uncle Robert loves you too. Have fun in heaven singing and dancing with the angels. God Bless and see you again some day.

*Love,
Rhonda*
