“ I'm remembering way back when I was a girl scout at Robert & Marcie Childs house - They both looked after us girls like we were each one of their own. Sometimes I long for those days. However, after hearing of Robert's passing I'm envious of the fact that he is in heaven with Marcie there waiting on him to stroll those golden streets in heaven. Beside him again in their glorified bodies to watch over your families. Hard as it was to loose him you can rest assured that he & Marcie are together again in a glorious reunion.

My condolences go out to you & your families during this time of loss. I will pray daily that the Lord will give you healing strength to know you will see them again some day.
