“ Jeremiah 29:11-13 (NIV)

11 For I know the plans I have for you," declares the LORD, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future. 12 Then you will call upon me and come and pray to me, and I will listen to you. 13 You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart.

*Leah, Roger and Miranda,
I am so sorry for your loss. My heart has been heavy since I received word. I don't have the right words to take the heartache away but I am praying for you guys and pray that you feel the presence of the God of Peace. He is with you every moment as you walk through this part of life's journey. Time will not heal all wounds, there will always be a hole in your heart but over time the wound is not as tender. “ I never thought that I would have to say 'Good Bye' to my VERY best friend in the whole world!! You were not only a testimony to those at your job, but you were a man of God 24/7 in your home!!! Roger, Miranda, and I will have a VERY hard time going on without you but I know you told me to be strong and to remember everything you had taught us! I don't understand why it was your time to go, but I trust that God will show that to us and His will be made known!!! You were SO good to me, you took care of me before you even thought of your own needs!! Thank You for always loving me through it all!! I will always love you and miss you and I promise to carry on and stay strong for our children!! I love you 'daddy' and I will miss calling you my 'teddy bear'!! See you in Glory!!! “ Leah,I just found out today about the passing of Roger. I am so very sorry my friend. I would have been there. In the years we worked together the thing that I will always remember is the deep love that you two shared. It was so evident on both of your faces. He was your heart and your life. I want you to know that you, Miranda, and Roger Jr. will be in my continual prayers. What a testimony Roger had. I had cold chills just reading about the funeral and the lives he touched now and for eternity.

I know God is going to be your best friend right now and will give you the grace and love you need.

“ Roger, It is 2340hrs. on 2-27-2008 I just laid to rest the greatest person I have ever known today. It was the most honorable, heart warming but with cold chills funeral I have ever attended in my life. I heard great words spoke of this man from his co-workers and friends. I saw a turn out like no one has ever seen to bid this man one last good-bye. I saw Firemen, Policemen, EMT's, Pastors, childhood friends and family members from all over the world. He was escorted on a Fire Truck and had two Ladder Trucks at the entrance to the cemetery. The Honor Guards were also there and bag pipes played this man HOME. There was even a Air Medic Helicopter do a fly-over in his honor. I was so proud of this man to see his life thru his family, friends and co-workers was something special. There was even 12 people come to know Christ in the service today. What a Testimony!!! I know he will be missed because this man is my Brother "Captin Roger Conner". I love you with all my heart and soul and I will miss you deeply. Rest now and know that I will love your family and take care of them like they were my own.##imported-begin##Todd##imported-end##

“ As a kid growing up I thought Roger was the closest real life representation of all the superheroes I idolized on TV, in comics, and on the movie screen. Looking up to him he had the physique, character, and most of all the heart of a real life hero. I saw it as a kid, and I realize it as an adult that Roger was better than those make believe heroes. Roger was, is, and forever will be my hero. I pray that in my life that I can reflect half the heart that Roger showed to me, and everyone he came in contact with. He always greeted me with a sincerely love filled hug and hello, and always left me with the same. I will never forget the many laughs that we would have in between, and the eagerness and desire to see him again. I will miss him, and look forward to laughing with him again. Amen.##imported-begin##Lance Shipman##imported-end##

“ I would like to take a minute and say how touched and inspired I was today at Capt. Conner's service. He would have wanted nothing more than to have 15 or more saved; Randy was right, it wasn't about him, it was about HIM. Boys, know Capt. is with you everyday as you work or live. To his family, may you find great peace and comfort in knowing how Roger was loved and respected as a man of God and most importantly as a witness to God's greatness to everyone he knew. Thank you for sharing Roger with us; sharing a love so deep and honest. My hat is also off to Josh, Wayne, Chickenhawk, and Scott. I know that had to be the hardest thing you have ever had to do, but know that Capt. gave each of you a gift; a gift of Godliness. I was deeply moved today, though saved, to feel refreshed in my faith and to learn more of true love. May God hold all of us in His comforting arms while we are here, to know we WILL see Roger again. ##imported-begin## Stephanie Ray, EMS ##imported-end##

“ I have alot of fun memories working with Capt. Conner. Rodger was many things to me, a friend, a leader, a good listener, and a great witness for God. I havent shared this experiance with many, but now more than ever I feel Rodger's family should know. I was working with him while he was an Engineer one year. The Engineer is usually the man the "younger" guys go to with problems. I was going though a difficult time in life and I confieded in him among others. One night as Rodger and I was talking, he brough out his bible and showed me some verses about how a man should be and how God should be first in a mans life. It was that night that I redeticeted my life to God. I've since told Capt. Conner about how that conversation of ours affected my life, but I wanted to share that with his family. Thankyou for sharing Rodger with us, my family was blessed to know him. I do know how much you love Roger and Todd, I watched while they grew in that love into the strong, good young men they were meant to be. Our babies belong to their heavenly father and are given to us for a time to love and cherish until he has completed his purpose in them. How special a man must he be that God needs him by his side so soon. Glenda, I know these words can't soothe the pain you will feel until you see your baby again, but please know that I would do anything if I could relieve some of that pain for you. Mickey, I know you are feeling that same pain and at the same time want to be strong for everyone else. Let us help you with our love, to carry some of your burden.
