

Rose McDaniel Summer

July 26, 1946 - January 12, 2025

Rose McDaniel Heatley Summer, age 78, of Greenville, passed away on Sunday, January 12th, 2025, surrounded with the love of her family.

Born in Greenville, Rose was the daughter of the late Cleveland Tyler Heatley and the late Annice Greene McDaniel Heatley. She was the wife of the late Walter Baker Summer. She was a Greenville High school graduate and went on to earn her master's degree in education from Furman University. She retired as a School Teacher with Greenville County School system and was also an adjunct professor at Furman University during her working career. She always enjoyed serving others and tried to help in any way she could. Rose loved nature and the outdoors enjoying the beauty of God's creation. She also liked to read and do landscaping. She loved her family and was Methodist by faith. She was a member of the Travelers Rest United Methodist Church.

She leaves behind to cherish her memory one daughter Mariannice Katherine "Kate" Wilson, 2 grandchildren, Ashley Rose "AR" Wilson, and Malcolm Thomas "Tom" Wilson, and several cousins.

In keeping with her wishes, her body was cremated, and no services are scheduled at this time.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Ms. Summer at Lakeview. She was a great teacher who sincerely cared about her students. Even the ones who were always giving her trouble. On the day I became the Secretary/Bookkeeper she went out and bought me a cup and a balloon. After 35 years I still have that cup. Kate, your Mom was extremely proud of you and talked about you all the time. My thoughts and prayers are with you.
