“ Ms. Ruby was a beautiful, intelligent, elegant and classy lady. She was like a second mother to me since my early teen years. My deepest condolences to her family. She was certainly a child of God and I am sure it brings much comfort to her loved ones to know that she has now gone on to her heavenly home and her great reward.

I Carol Cisson remebers,Ruby Lou very much and loved her. I lived in Pleasant Grove community. Woodrow Cisson was my dad and I was the oldest of three girls. I feel you and your family remember me. Our mother died when my two sister were real young and I was the oldest of the three girls. We now live in Pickens and all have children .Daddy remarried and had one boy. He deceased now, however. We be praying for you and the family.
