I first met Ruby when I started work with Monsanto in Greenville, South Carolina in 1973. In 1974 - I joined the Analysis Department reporting to W. C. Hunter and working with Ruby. As a young person fresh out of college - working with Ruby could be a bit intimidating - she gave her best all t.he time and expected nothing less from you - a great life lesson. After many years I returned to the Monsanto Nylon business and crossed paths with Ruby in the Atlanta offices a number of times..It was good to see an old friend. Deepest condolences to the family
