“ I loved her. She was wonderful and kind. The biggest thing about her is she loved her kids and grandkids and she respected and supported her husband. When u sat down with her you felt her kind heart. She was feisty but still a gentle warm soul. She managed to be both at once. There's was nobody like her, her family will never recover from this because she's irreplaceable because her heart was so big. All they can do is remember her because nobody could ever forget her. A truly wonderful lady who gave her life to her family. The world won't be the same with her passing. We are all made poorer for her absence. She lives in our hearts and minds.

“ Mama, I love you so very much. Our recent times together have been spent getting your health in order and we so enjoyed and were delighted in the progress that you made. It was enormous. Your overall bill of health was the very best it had been in quite some time. You were such a fighter. I enjoyed every single minute with you and was certainly not ready to say goodbye. You loved us all hard and genuinely in all your many special ways. I can find some comfort in knowing that you will be reunited with Dad soon and what wonderful Valentines Day you will share this year in being beside one another again. For always. I miss you and can't wait to see you again when my time comes and the Lord calls me home as well. ❤️

“ Dear Family and Friends, we are praying for you all.

Sally touched so many lives. There are not enough words to express how much she is loved.

She is no longer suffering but is with Jesus, walking on Streets of Gold, and in a New, Perfect Body. Her smile and laughter would light up a room. She was always positive.

She always had such a warm smile and loved everyone. She was always concerned with her church, the sick, other people, loved her family and friends, making everyone feel welcome.

Sally leaves behind a wonderful legacy. She was an exemplary wife, daughter, grandmother, great grandmother, and friend.

Earth's loss is Heaven's gain. Thank God we will reunite with Sally in Heaven.

May God provide your each and every need including grace, peace, comfort, love and discernment.

Sally was such a gracious Southern Lady. If there is someone, either a Friend or Family Member, who is not saved, may this be the time that someone will repent of their sins and accepts Jesus as their Lord and Savior. Remember the special times shared with Sally.

Please accept our deepest condolences to you over the loss of Sally. I offer you our heartfelt support and friendship in this difficult time.

I know I can't make your pain go away, but I want you to know that we are here for you with a shoulder to cry on or an ear to listen with, or anything else you may need.

You are all in our thoughts and prayers.
