“ Amy and Family, I am sorry to hear about your dad. He had a good sense of humor and made us laugh at silly jokes everytime Stacey, Sherry Blisset and I came over to your house in high school. If we called Amy on the phone on a school night after 9:01pm he would always chuckle because he knew Amy was always in bed by 9pm sharp. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all.##imported-begin##Claire (Dodson) Orr##imported-end##

“ Miss Margaret, Robin and Amy ; I heard of Mr. Sam's passing yesterday and hope you all know how much he was loved even by those of us "from the past". I will always consider Weehawken my home and y'all my across the street neighbors. Mr. Sam knew how to tease me and make me laugh, he truly does have a special place in my memories. I wish for you all a sense of peace and of love knowing he will be in your hearts forever. love, Sandra##imported-begin##Sandra Killingsworth Jordan##imported-end##

“ Margaret and family

We send our sympathy and love to you and all the family. Due to lots of miles, we are unable to be with you except in thoughts and prayers. We will all miss Sam and just have to be thankful for all the good times at the Greene reunions and I remember years and years ago of visiting with all of you in Morganton and I guess it was before you and Sam were married or after. I'm not sure of the time, but please remember we are thinking of you and praying for all of you.

Love you

“ Dear Margaret and family,

I am out of town visiting Connie's family and my brother Hugh called me to let me know about Sam. I'm not sure whether I will be able to make it to the funeral tomorrow because of being so far away, but know that my thoughts and prayers are with you during this time. Sam's friendship and our times together have meant a lot to me over the years. Our experiences together have brought a lot of laughter as I remember things we have done or said. I will be in touch with you soon, but in the mean time I will be praying for you all.##imported-begin##Max Long##imported-end##

“ Dear Margaret, Robin, & Amy,

I was so sorry to hear about Sam. I know the last few weeks have been terribly difficult for you and your families. We will be praying for you as you walk through this valley. May the Lord lift you up on eagle's wings and hold you tight in His arms. The days ahead will be difficult, but I know you will have opportunities to celebrate all the wonderful memories you have had and rejoice that Sam has been healed. Celebrating my mom's life has been helpful for me as I adjust to life here without her. I can hear him now leading the bass section in the heavenly choir as they sing, "Just a Little Talk with Jesus." Know of our love for you.##imported-begin##Connie Loy##imported-end##

“ *Just wanted to let you know how very sorry we are over the loss of Sam. He was truly one of the kind and loving spirits that God sends to us. Was so glad to get to see him in July. Remember how he was laughing over us trying to figure out if Aaliyah was a boy or a girl. Sam touched everyone with his smile and his kindness but more than anything in the world he loved his family. We sure are going to miss his gentle spirit. Our love and thoughts and prayers go out to you all. Love Karen & Elizabeth##imported-begin##Karen &

“ Dear Margaret, Amy, and Robin,
My heart aches for each of you in the loss of such a wonderful man.
I have so many fond memories of us all sharing our "impressionable" years together playing basketball, sleep overs, church outings. Your home was my 2nd home, where I always felt welcome and loved.
Sam will be missed by so many. But by none more than you, the family that he cherished.
With much love, respect and gratitude for allowing us to share Sam with you through all the years.
May God be with you, now and always “ Margaret, Robin, Amy, et al....

What will Weehawken Circle do without Sam?
For sure, we're all better because of him, and grieve with you in his passing.
Smiling Sam... always so busy helping somebody else, you hardly knew his struggles.

May you be comforted... and may he continue to live through your lives.
