“ What a special person Sara (and Johnny and Darlene) have all been to our family for nearly sixty years. It is with deep sadness that we say good-bye, but only until we meet again. What wonderful stories we've shared and then re-told and re-told over the years laughing and amazed at the things that happened to us when we were together. Our only regret is that due to illnesses here we have not been able to see Sara lately, but won't that reunion in heaven be a glorious one. Darlene, we are here for you and know that we love you so much.
