“Granny, you will be missed. It's going to be difficult closing this chapter in my life because you were always there with your unconditional love. You gave so much and never hesitated to help someone in need. You took care and love me me as well as many other people over the span of your life and now Jesus can take care and love you for eternity. I miss you already and only by the grace of God will I cope with you not being in my life. Go with Jesus and I will see you again one day. David Akers
