“ Angie and I remember all the fun times we had with Scott and Jennifer before either of us had children. We moved back to Ohio, but kept in constant contact with the Scott and Jennifer. Both of our families had children about the same time and enjoyed visiting Scott, Jennifer, and the boys, from time to time. It was always a pleasure being with the Deaver family. Scott will be sorely missed, but not forgotten. We love all of you! The Luken Family - Piqua, Ohio

“ We were blessed to have Scott as a member of our family for 23 years. He was a son-in-love. We have no regrets. We have many tangible proofs of his talent, and skill about our home and love for Jennifer, and their sons. The grace of God is so good. We rejoice that death can bring an end to every type of earthly suffering. And that indeed GOD can make beauty out of ashes. Thereby:

A SONS MEMORIAL EDUCATION FUND has been established at TD Bank of Travelers Rest, SC. You may inquire and make donations to this fund as an expression of care and concern. We know many of you have been praying for quite a long time for the boys and their mom and all who have tried to do everything possible to help him. May GOD bless you for your involvement and this may be a tangible way to express your care for the boys.

“ Scott and I have so many high school memories in common that it is difficult to pinpoint one or two. I can still hear his little chuckle and his "oh no" that preceded it whenever we shared a funny story or saw something that just didn't quite add up. Academy band members will remember the "Chariots of Fire" spoof that involved Scott's baritone section in which we would deliberately miss notes (before band class, of course) just to make us all laugh. That is what I will always remember about Scott. When I was in close association with him he was always easy-going and jovial. Many condolences for his family in this time of sudden shock.
