

Sean Patrick McBride

October 30, 1982 - February 5, 2016

On October 30th, 1982, Sean Patrick McBride took his first breath as he entered this world in Greenville, SC to Patricia Burroughs and Troy Roger McBride.

Born their second son, he was a vibrant, active young man with a sweet and tender spirit. He loved the outdoors and spending time with family and friends. Sean attended Greenville High School where he was an active member with the NJROTC and made Eagle Scout with Troop 282. Sean had been working for the City of Greenville for the past year.

Even through all of his ups and downs, Sean recently accepted Christ into his heart and became a part of the Travelers Rest United Methodist family in Travelers Rest, SC where he began to find a new meaning in life and a more fulfilling life.

On February 5th, 2016 at around 7:40pm, Sean earned his wings and went to be with his Lord and Savior, passing peacefully with his family around him. He was a beloved son, brother, nephew, uncle, and friend to many. His smile, laugh, goofy personality, and tender heart will be missed in ways unimaginable on this earth.

Sean's memory and life will always be honored and remembered through his father Troy Roger McBride, his mother and step-father Patricia and Lynn Burroughs, his brothers Troy Richard and Ryan McBride, and several aunts, uncles, nieces, and nephews.

Visitation and the Celebration of Sean's Life will be held on Tuesday, February 9th, 2016 at Travelers Rest United Methodist church with Visitation beginning at 1:00pm followed by the service at 2:00pm. Burial will follow in Woodlawn Memorial Park.

The family will be receiving other family members and friends at 59 Long Forest Drive, Greenville, SC 29617.

Memorials may be made to the Travelers Rest United Methodist Church youth group, 19 South main St., Travelers Rest, SC 29690.

The Howze Mortuary, Travelers Rest is in charge of arrangements. (864) 834-8051

“ Sean you were always there when I needed you. I'll always miss your laugh and funny personality. I have been telling so many of our shananigans. Throwing playdoh balls at the ceiling fan driving my mom crazy when she found tiny pieces everywhere. Sledding down the stairs, joy riding, chasing tornadoes, favors, dares, pranks, you hitting me with your s10 in your dad's driveway bc you just thought that was H-i-l-a-r-i-o-u-s..., jeep vs fence, going to the rapids, hiking, fishing, lifeguarding, skating, mallrats, halo, the ferris wheel, mudding, putput, teaching you to ride a motorcycle, (and you breaking the clutch...), the roof singing "I believe I can fly" at the top of our lungs and the guy who would tell us to shut up , Katie kaboom, washington Dc, Norfolk, Florida! NJROTC, camping, table rock when I lost my other real good friend and you brought me out of my slump,.. I could go on and on. I'm going to miss you! You were a great guy! I'm proud of you and glad to have had the time I had with you. I know I'll see you again someday I still have more favors than you so you owe me! I know I have another angel looking out for me and the family.... Matt and I will always love you.

“ Sean & I didn't get to know each other that well, but we kept up with each other through his mom. He came with Patti to visit me when I was in the hospital this time last year. He was so sweet & concerned about what was going on. I wish I could've gotten to know him better, but I will always remember his smiling face during worship on Sunday mornings.

“ My dear brother, I am sad you are gone, but rejoice in knowing that you are now a guardian angel for Michael, Ian, Emma, Skyler, and Ava. For 14 years you were another brother in my family and I love you dearly and always will. Rich loves you more than words can say as a brother's love is never fading and everlasting. Rest peacefully my sweet brother. With all my love, your little sister.

“ Sean is my middle son. He was a very caring man, he has helped and even given the coat off his back to a homeless man. He was tender hearted, loving, and called me every day to check on me. Remember this, my beautiful son, you will live on in the hearts of those who knew you best, and loved you most. I will always love you. Mom
