“ I first met Mr.Scruggs back in the '70's,renting an apartment at Spring Park.I so remember his smile and his kindness to all his tenants,both young and old alike.He watched out for us,making sure we all felt safe in the Park.He was soft spoken and never hesitated to lend a helping hand as needed.He was a fair man and a gentlemen always.The entire Park adored him.I was lucky enough to call him my friend.I saw him last at Ingles,after my Dad passed in 2009.Dressed in a long rain coat and hat he stood out ~ I knew I knew him from some time and place.I approached him,and had to confess I knew the face,but couldn't place the name.'Mr.Scruggs!'I shrieked as soon as he spoke.It was so nice to see my old friend.We talked about Daddy,as I know they did business together for many years.I planted a friendly hug on him,before we went our separate way back out into the monsoon.I was smiling,as one usually does,after bumping into a dear and one of a kind friend.God's speed Mr.Scruggs.I know you'll have wings in Heaven.I still adore you.You are missed.Prayers and much love to your family and friends....

“ I have many fond memories of Uncle Seth! I remember visiting the family in Waco, Columbus, and in Greenville when he retired from a career in the Air Force. He and Aunt Bobbi hosted our rehearsal dinner when we got married. He loved my chocolate chip cookies, and I think of him every time I make them. I will always remember his birthday on July 4, which was a fitting day for a career of military service! The last time I saw him was in CVS or Walgreens and we reminisced over his military career and that my son-in-law had been flying the same plan that he flew many years ago. Joyce has taken great care of him in his later years, and I pray for all of our family as we grieve the loss of Uncle Seth!
