“ I knew Shelby for many years our families use to go swimming at the river. We would visit and we had some good times. One thing you could say about Shelby is she would take it to the limit. Wish I had known she was sick and could have talked before she left this old world. Rest in peace my old friend.

“ Shelby was a great friend on Facebook. We had made plans Louise (mom), Christina (my daughter), and I were going to come up on my vacation to meet Shelby, Angel, and the other family. We were going to have a great time. We planned on spending a couple of days there. Shelby and I would always pm each other. She helped me a couple of times when I was down. I miss her very much. I enjoyed getting her going on Facebook. She told me I want to drive your car. I had planned on driving it up and giving her the key fob. I am sorry it didn't happen. The last thing I got to tell her was I love you please get well because, we need you. I told her I don't want to loose you. God had other plans. I still have her messages on my phone. It brings a little comfort but, reality sets in. The last thing Shelby told me was I miss you. I miss her and my heart is broken. I didn't get to take her and her family out to dinner, she didn't get to drive the Challenger Shaker Scat Pack. I look forward to seeing her when It's my time. I have a lot of friends there. “ She told me, if she had a sister it would like me, I miss her and her spirit. She was one of a kind. I told her I loved her also.
