“ Tammy and Cindy, my heart goes out to you. You two were so faithful in caring for Mother 24/7. I know God has a special reward for you both. I know your sadness is heart breaking, as it is, to the rest of us adult children but please just depend on God for your strength and He will give you comfort and inner peace you so need during these very difficult days. Mother's legacy lives on within each of us ...so just know she is here with us every day. God's mercy and grace bless us each moment of the day. I love you and I am praying for you. All my love, Sher

Tracy has shared pictures and stories of your mom with me over the years. Her earthly days are done, her Heavenly home and reunion started. You all are her legacy. God bless you all.

“ To the family,

Joe and I thought the world of Gayle. She was the sweetest person ever! We worked together at Wisconsin Wires and then worshipped together at Cleveland First Baptist. I am truly sorry for the family's loss. May you feel the presence of the Lord with you during your grief.

*Love in Christ,
