“ Charles&Stella moved in and became our new neighbors about a year and a half ago, we just want to say how sorry we are for everyone's loss. Charles and I would talk frequently outside. I have never seen a man so dedicated to keeping his wife as comfortable as possible. Charles was the best caretaker a spouse could possibly have during an illness. We also want to say what what a caring and sweet lady Stella was. About a month ago when she found out it was our daughters 6th birthday she went out and got her a Birthday gift and she & Charles brought it over along with something for our 3 year old son. It was obvious she was in no condition to do this, she was feeling bad. That was the sweetest thing, it meant a lot. They have been our 3rd neighbor here and for sure the best. Charles you have someone on the other side who loves you and is pulling for you, you hang in there. Stella isn't hurting anymore, she is with Jesus now. Your Friends the Harris family.

WHEN STELLA INTERVIEWED FOR A JOB WITH MILLIKEN, I CAN REMEMBER HELPING WITH THE INTERVIEW. SHE WAS A GOOD WORKER. MAY GOD BLESS ALL OF YOU. LINDA COGGINS
