“ Stephanie was a really good person. She was my biggest fan. She always brought joy to my life. She told me "you goin changed the world kay, she told me keep writing and share my testimony so I know she is a angel of mine now and I have to work even harder for her. She was so dedicated and determined. I been calling and calling. You will never be forgotten I love you Stephanie Mack. I'm going to miss you soo soo much..I know you in heaven smiling down ...

“ Stephanie was the brightest ray of light in a dark and strange place when we met years ago. Her huge smile, sense of humor, intelligence and marvelous creativity made her a true and good friend to have around when the going was tough. I admired how she kept her hands busy with some fun and meaningful creation, with few resources at hand she managed to make something very valuable for a lovely gift. I told her her sculptures belonged in a museum for all the world to enjoy. A big, yet humble smile was her reply.

All of us are better for knowing her. Her kindness and encouraging words to me and mine always hold a special place in my heart. And that is all that matters... being kind and showing love, which she did over and over.

We are grateful to have crossed paths and feel the light she shined, here and now and for all Eternity.

Soar with the Angels sweet Steph
Sing your song
Feel the all the Love and Joy
You shared with us embrace you now and always.

Much Love
Margaret and Jane
