

Stephanie Owens

May 6, 1994 - January 1, 2022

Stephanie Owens, 27, of Travelers Rest, passed away Saturday, January 1, 2022.

Born in Greenville County, she was a daughter of Deborah Taylor Owens and the late Jim Owens. She graduated from Blue Ridge High School, was employed with Precision Valve, and attended Cool Springs Primitive Baptist Church.

Along with her mother she is survived by her beloved son: Wyatt; a sister: Kelly Hendricks, brother-in-law, T J and children Allie and Harper; and many loving cousins, uncles and aunts.

The family will have a Memorial Service Saturday, January 8, 2022, at 11:30am at Cool Springs Primitive Baptist Church.

The family will be at the home.

In lieu of flowers the family requests that everyone who loved Stephanie perform an act of kindness in her memory.

“ I sincerely send my condolences to Mrs. Deb, Kelly, Wyatt, & Alisa. As well too the entire family. Im seriously lost for word's. There will always be a huge void in my heart that belongs to Ms Stephanie Taylor Owen. I love her so very deeply and have since the first night her an I met. She was a beautiful light in the time of darkness, but now she can finally fly high. She is finally the angel she always song about. She can now "go rest high on that mountain, her work on earth is finally done." Free from all the pain, heartache and sadness that we all are going through, missing her. I know she's reunited with her daddy and her poppa, finally seeing little Corbin again. God blessed us all with this wonderful experience having the relationship the friend the daughter the sister an the mother the gorgeous sweet little southern bell that I will never forget or stop loving.

“ To Deborah, Kelly and Family,
I am so very deeply sorry about Stephanie's passing. Such a tragedy that she lost her life at such an early age. I know you are all in shock and totally grief stricken. Deborah, I pray especially for you being the mother who has now lost a child. I can't imagine the unbearable pain this must be for you. And Kelly, I can sympathize with you and your pain of losing a precious sister as I have two sisters who have gone in to be with the Lord. I still miss them every day. I'm praying that God will surround each of you with His great love, and give you the strength to get through the grievous days ahead. May He give you the comfort and peace that only He can give. May God fill your hearts with sweet memories of all the things you shared with Stephanie so she can continue live on through each of you.
With deepest sympathy and heartfelt condolences,
Debbie Lee (Sharon McFeely's Friend)

“ I’m so sorry for your loss. It’s hard for me to write this. A parent should not bury their child. It’s just so hard to deal with. I just buried my son in September. You will have people tell you that it will get easier as days go by but that’s not true. It will take a part of your heart with her. No one knows the pain and heartache. You and everyone in your family will be in my prayers. May God comfort you all in days to come .Much love, Dianne & Robbie Grumbles

“ My heart goes out to all of you. She will be missed and I can tell you this is the hardest thing you will ever go through. A parent should not bury their child. It’s the hardest thing I’ve ever done. We loss David in September and it will never be the same. You will never get over it no matter what others tell you. My heart breaks for you. May God give you comfort and peace in days to come. You all will be in my prayers. If I can help in anyway just let us know. Much love, Dianne & Robbie Grumbles

“ I remember when Stephanie finally made it home as a premie baby, so tiny and so determined. She had tubes and looked so fragile I was afraid to touch her, but this was a tough little girl. She made her little noises and fought her way to become a tough, beautiful young lady. My deepest sympathy and wishes of peace for her family. I love you all.
