“ Bob,
We were so sorry to hear of Susan's journey to Heaven. I can still remember you first introducing her to us many years ago. Didn't realize it had been that long ago. Yes we started out as neighbors in 1979. We are saddened to hear of your loss but Christ has gained a glorious saint. "To be absent from the body and present with the Lord." For me to live is Christ and to die is GAIN." We regret that we didn't know of Susan's funeral or we would have been there. Hope we can stay in touch

“ Our journey together started teaching at Hollis Middle School together in the early 80's. She was single and needing a place to live closer to work so she rented my upstairs apartment and we carpoled to work. Then she met Bob and love was in the air. I directed their wedding, and I can understand the tremendous loss he is feeling. Susan went on to Northwest and I went to Lakeview when Hollis Middle closed. Then we teamed up again when I started subbing at Northwest in 2001. Our journey took turns and twists but our paths seemed destined to cross. I look forward to the next intersection of our roads when we stand at the foot of The Throne praising Our Savior, Jesus Christ! Enjoy the Eternal Sonlight, Susan....

“ To the Brueggeman,

*The sorrow of the faithful is not that of permanent loss, but the tender sense of sadness that comes in saying good-bye for now to someone we love.
May today's sorrow give way to the peace and comfort of God's love.*

“ I worked with Susan at Northwest, we both taught 7th grade. It was a pleasure knowing Susan and working with her. She and I retired at about the same time. I have thought of her often. I am so sad to hear she has passed. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.
