“ I don't even know where to start. Thomas was one of the kindest, most caring souls I ever met. I could go on and on all day about all the good I witnessed in his presence. All the genuine heart he put into life and those around him. I know in my heart that I'm a better man because I knew him. Having been a part of his life makes my life better. My time with him was limited compared to his family. I can only imagine how warm and caring he really was. I love him like a son more than a brother. I will remember the lessons I never knew he taught me in how to be a quality human. I will always remember you. I love you little buddy
