“ I can remember when Tim and I were in Kindergarten together. Growing up at Victor Baptist Church and continued to be friends all through the rest of the grade school years. He married a wonderful friend of mine who I love still to this day along with her siblings. Kathy, I am so sorry for your lost. May God grant you and your family peace beyond all understanding with pleasant days ahead. My prayers and thoughts will be lifted up. With deepest sympathy. Your life long friend, “ Remembering Tim and Rhonda from school. Thinking of Tim and my brother, Chris, being classmates of BR graduating class of 1970. It seems so long ago but yet only yesterday. You both still hold a special place in my heart. Those were the best days of my life and I miss you! God bless your family and may your memories comfort you in the days ahead. Thank you, Sherry! We miss those times, too. Tim absolutely loved his high school and everyone he went to school with. Those were the best of times, for sure. Your message means a lot to me and I appreciate you so much. Thank you again!

“ My heart is so heavy with the loss of your Husband, Father, Grandfather, great Grandfather. Son and brother. Tim was a wonderful man and I was blessed when Rhonda married Dean and you all became my family. He loved each and everyone of you. He is now with out pain and suffering and in Heaven where we will get to see again. Love each and every one of you with my whole heart.
