“ Hi U & Chandi absolutly rekocd on BGT! Well done !! I am a lighting & robotics engineer in India working on sound & light shows based on animals. You have sort of inspired me to do a doggy show based on the 12 notes in an octave with 12 robotic dogs(13 actually with the next C) of varying heights who move their mouths and bark in tune. I will program them to bark out tunes , starting with Doe-a-deer' (what better to start with) from S of M.TC & a big God Bless###imported-begin##Karen###imported-end##

“ In the short time I worked with Tonya at Greenville Urology, I grew to love her and consider her a good friend. She always had a smile on her face, joy in her heart and a love for everyone she came in contact with. Her sweet sprit touched my heart and I will miss her terribly, she helped me through some very rough times and always had a shoulder for me to cry on. I loved her dearly and will miss her. I am grateful for the opportunity I had to get to know her. I am so sorry for your loss.##imported-begin##Lori Stout##imported-end##

“ Tonya's smile and kind heart will always be a wonderful memory. I had lost contact with her since High School. Then, through her work, she ran into a relative and asked if we were related. When they described the lady and said her name was Tonya, I knew immediately who they were talking about. They described Tonya as a really pretty girl with the most beautiful smile and sweetest disposition. And, that is the Tonya we all knew at TRHS. She was always smiling, sweet, genuine and ready for a big hug. We had several opportunities in high school to hang out. We went to the fair one year with another friend and every time I hear "Rhythm of the Night" by DeBarge, I think of that awesome night the three of us had. Tonya brought life and laughter to others. May it bring her loved ones great comfort to know that she will be greatly missed! May your Greatest Comfort be in knowing God will care for you and walk you through this valley. I am so very sorry for your loss.##imported-begin##Robin Barrett Hand##imported-end##

“ Lauren,
Even though I cannot be there, I wanted you to know how so very sorry I am for your loss. My heart grieves for you as I've been through much the same. Your mother is now with the Lord and His angels.
Take it minute by minute, or hour by hour. Rest when you can, and decisions can sometimes wait. Accept all offered help and kindness. You need it now. Take good care of yourself, and know there are many of us that care very much about you.

“ I first met Tonya (and her family) when I moved in next door to them (2005). All of my memories of her are wonderful! Every time she saw us, she made a point to speak to me and my children making us feel welcome and important. The boys loved that she seemed to always have cookies, cupcakes or popsicles; which she was more than willing to share with them! I have not seen her in years but have thought of her offer and will regret not keeping in touch. She will be missed very much by so many people. My thoughts are prayers are with the family during this difficult time.##imported-begin##Sarah Sherlin##imported-end##
