“ Dear Surrett family, I'm so sorry for your loss. He was a good man. My in-laws, Margaret and Leroy Reynolds, always considered him a great friend and bragged on the fine, sturdy home he built for them, where they have lived for 58 years. On their behalf and mine as well, love and prayers to all of you. Debbie Reynolds

“ Uncle Toy you will be missed, He always picked at me when I would stay with them on Hilltop. about a boy that lived across the road from them, my first sweetheart years ago, I'd be embarrassed and laughing at the same time. Now your in Heaven with mama, daddy, your sister, and Uncle Fred No more pain, Love always!
