“ My condolences to the family, Tracy was a sweet girl. She would come in to the subway I worked at and buy coffee, she would always tip way to much for her cup of coffee. The world and I was blessed to have met her, may she forever rest in peace in eternal happiness.

“ I taught Tracey all those many years ago when she attended Bob Jones University, and we have been privileged for many years to count the Jones family as dear friends and co-laborers for the Lord. Please accept our heart-felt sympathy as you cope with your loss. We take comfort in knowing we will see Tracey again one day when we meet with the Lord.

Love always,

“ My first meeting of Tracey was the 1st Christmas I worked at the bakery. She was going around the whole store giving out candy canes and cards to all who worked that day. I was feeling a little low that day and Tracey came up and put a little holiday in day. Thank you Tracey. You are a very special angel.
