“ Priscella,
I just heard that Travis has gone on to be with the Lord. My heart goes out to you because I know how much you're going to miss him. I wish I had words of comfort, but comfort will come only from God and I pray the Lord will be with you and your family during this most difficult time.

In Christ's Love.

“ Priscilla,
My thoughts and prayers are with you....I can't imagine what your going through, but I do know that God's Grace is sufficient...He's always there when we need him...I Love You and think about you often. I'm glad you have all those grandchildren, Mom always said the more children you have the more love there is...I believe that.
